Hall of Fame

New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Finley

Twenty-eight years have elapsed since the death of Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross. In that time no effort has been made to recognize, adequately, her service to the nation and humanity and,

Whereas the Hall of Fame meeting in New York City in June has placed the name of Clara Barton on it's list to be sent to the electors

Be it resolved, that the Elburn Community Association place itself on record as approving and urging that the name of Clara Barton be inscribed on the Honor Roll of the Hall of Fame to perpetuate for future generations a record of her unselfish devotion to the alleviation of human suffering and organization of the Red Cross.

Sincerely yours,

Elburn Community Ass'n
